

Week of Prayer 9th October to 15th October 2017

Letting our heavenly Father know what we want, how we feel and listening to how He feels and what He wants is a key part of our relationship with Him. God called Christians to the South Molton area because its people are on His heart and because he wants us to tell the people here about Him. As Churches Together we are going to pray for all aspects of God's Kingdom in our area. We have held a series of events, where we have prayed together as an area and for our area.

The week concludes with a Churches Together Prayer service at the Parish Church this evening at 6 p.m.

The Autumn issue of 'The Connexion', a free magazine about the Methodist Church is available now for you to take home and read, keep or return. The Methodist Conference this year reported a 35% drop in Methodist Church Membership over the last ten years, In response The Connexion has devoted their Autumn issue to Transformational Leadership and is full of inspiring stories from the life of the Methodist Church. Please take one and be encouraged. Copies are on the literature stand at the entrance.

"But forget all that — it is nothing compared to what I am going to do. For I am about to do something new. See, I have already begun! Do you not see it?"

(Isaiah 43:18-19)

South Molton Methodist Church

for Sunday 15th October 2017

We welcome you all to our Church today.

10 a.m. – Prayer Meeting (Room 6)

11 a.m. – Morning Worship led by Mr Nick Jefferson

6 p.m. – Churches Together Service at the Parish Church

Focus for our Prayers this week:

- When we feel we are failures in God's eyes, remember that God does not give up on us but continues to love us and pour out His grace and mercy. Thank Him for the favour He continues to show to us which we cannot earn or even deserve.
- Continue to pray for those Autumn Church Councils that are still to take place, pray that each Church will recognise the areas of need in their locality and in response find a way of 'being a pioneering Church in their Community'.
